

Listing Results: Transition Center, Alameda County Juvenile Justice Center

Name: Transition Center, Alameda County Juvenile Justice Center

Last Updated: Nov 21, 2011

Contact Information: Phone: 510-667-4304

URL:

Fax:

Email: hattie.tate@ousd.k12.ca.us

Public Transit Service:

Organization Description: Helps youth transition from the juvenile justice center to home, another placement, and to school. Public health nurse and health insurance technician provides health education, health services, and assistance in applying for free or low-cost health insurance. Behavioral health specialist connects youth and families with counseling, substance abuse treatment, and other community support services. Probation officer connects youth with community services and ensures compliance with court mandates. OUSD staff find appropriate school placements prior to leaving juvenile hall. Measure Y provides case management to youth and families.

Resources Available at this Organization:

Educational Resources: Oakland Unified School District Resource; OUSD School-Based Services; Family Support;

Youth Recreation and Development: Mentoring and Youth Development;